While Keen is a referee and keeps the games fair.

While Reder's a soldier marching in line.

While Jim Stahoviak now makes his own dollar bills.

While Sharp is preaching the Christian faith.

While Dugan is modeling the newest fads.

While Werth just passed for one of the Toni twins.

Morris left for Europe and hasn't been seen since.
Lorraine's a hermit and lives all alone,
While Beck's wasting nickels in the telephone.
Leistikow's now drawing figures by the score—
He's just decided that college was a bore.
Jansen's All-American as we all know,
But Hartz lost out when he broke his big toe.
Cavanaugh now has a band of his own,
While Lemmel has changed to a saxaphone.
Galik is the fatman in no other than Bailey's;
Linson is writing for the New York Daily.
Newcomer has finally found her one and all,
While Konopasek is still gazing in her crystal ball.
Powell is a detective and carries a big gun;
He's making Moffett sorry for all the things she's done.
Alsip and Harris have made their first million;
Clough is pitching and making billions.
Medsker owns a skating rink and is going round
and round,
While Kosmoski is still doing fine, painting up
the town.
Sipos was killed by Long in a fight,
While Jansma looked on and laughed with delight.
Komanich and Fronek are running for money;
Tari still writes notes beginning with "honey".
Stack owns a gas station and is making lots of dough,
While Mikovetz is traveling but going mighty slow.
Ready is principal of old G. H. S.;
Alice Ross is Dean of Girls and making a success.
Fitzsimmons runs the kiddie train at dear old Wicker Park;
Georgia, taking a different name, has changed the old Clark.
Alger keeps his fingers crossed when driving his new car;
Ruthie tries to keep her kids out of the cookie jar.

Carmen is still puffing-----

    Her stock car just won't start,
    While Britton has just turned to painting modern art.

Drabold, Mshar and Mary Cutan
    Are now all working on the 5:15.
While Hank Chappay, of course,
    Is still a scream.

Chapman got married to her guy in the West;
    Hansen's now working and doing his best.
Windell's just had two kids with black hair,
    While the sermons Colwell preaches are pretty fair.

Sanders is now teaching at Wheatfield, grade 3,
    While Zacker is singing "Oh Promise Me."
Williams and the Gatlins are heavenly blessed,
    While Orlich's a lawyer pounding his fist.

Colby has taken Sander's place here at school,
    While Hilbrich just bought a very rare jewel.
Sieb has patented her latest hair-do;

    Govert's still pitching Ralph Cook with the woo.
Koepke and Justak are planning to marry;

    Graves is now mourning—her canoe hit a ferry.
Krooswyk is stacking her pennies away,
    While Norton is star for U. C. L. A.

Korzeniewski still works at the Royal Blue;
    Mandernach is studying to enter dear Purdue.
Stevenson's just bought her 60th Cadillac,
    But the tax collectors caught her and they made her take it back.

A Doctor is Hippensteel, giving shots to the sick;
    Turner invented a new kiss-proof lipstick.

James is New Elliot's leading mortician;
    Bob Ficht has a very high social position.

Clemens models all of the men's latest fads,
    While Weiss is posing for hair growing ads.

Jack Smith and McFarland got into a fight;
    Now Jack's 6 feet under, 1st grave to the right.

Tippett's just taken Eienstien's place;
    Dayhoff now has a captain to face.

Zambo received his diploma at last,
    While Peters invented a new laughing gas.

Last, but not least, two gals you will find,
    Who more often than not, have boys on their mind.
Not fat but thin, not cross but jolly,
    They're known to you as our own Pat and Dollie.

The pot is empty the future revealed,
    We hope, to your humor, this staff has appealed.

Pat Jelleff
Dollie Kistler
